

Wanted At Once
From the Ranks of New York Men Over Draft Age
4000 "Cheer Leaders"
For Our Boys "Over There"
For full particulars call at 347 Madison Ave. (Mr. E. D. Pouch)

OPPENHEIM, COLLINS & Co

34th Street—New York

Will Hold Commencing To-morrow

An Extraordinary Dress Sale

At An Unprecedented Low Price

All Sales Must Be Final

Positively
None
C. O. D.

625 Summer Silk Dresses

For Women and Misses

Attractive Afternoon and Street Dresses (three as illustrated) of Satin, Foulard, Crepe de Chine, Crepe Meteor, Chiffon Taffeta and combinations of Taffeta and Georgette Crepe in the season's desirable colors.

Regular Values
20.00 to 25.00

Sale Price 12.75

REVEALS GERMAN PLOT TO FORM IRISH BRIGADE

Prosecutor of Sinn Féin Says
Members Were to Be Sent to U. S. After War.

LONDON, July 8.—Court Martial of J. Dowling, a Lance Corporal of the Connaught Rangers, who landed in Ireland two months ago in a collapsible boat from a German submarine, began to-day after he pleaded not guilty.

Dowling's arrest figured in the exposure of an alleged Sinn Féin revolutionary plot, which resulted in wholesale arrest and deportation of Sinn Féin leaders. One charge is that he participated in an attempt to land a hostile force in Ireland.

Sir Archibald Bodkin, the prosecutor, described at length the German plot launched at the end of 1914 for the formation of an "Irish brigade" from among the Irish taken prisoners on the British front. The scheme, Sir Archibald said, was repudiated by most of the prisoners, but Dowling and a few others joined the brigade and acted as recruiting agents.

The prosecutor then described the means used by the Germans to induce Irishmen to join, and in particular, the German promise to them reading: "At the end of the war the German Government will undertake to send every member of the Irish brigade to the United States."

Sir Archibald Bodkin also read a long document, issued by the Germans at Limburg Camp, which said:

"The Irish in America are collecting money for this brigade. Join the new unit and win your independence. The Irish Brigade is to fight solely for the cause of Ireland with the moral and material assistance of the German Government."

The story told by Prosecutor Bodkin of the arrival of Corp. Dowling in Ireland follows:

"On April 12 fishermen going out from a harbor on the Clare coast saw a man waving a handkerchief on an island half a mile from shore. He said he had been washed ashore from the torpedoed ship Mississippi during the night. He said the fishermen five shillings and land him at Ballycine Pier, where he gave his name as James O'Brien, and described the torpedoing of the Mississippi with great detail, stating that the ship came from Baltimore."

"Later in the day his collapsible boat, of undoubted German manufacture, was washed ashore. Dowling had seventy pounds of English money. He said he had come from the United States to see Irish friends before joining the American Army."

Soldiers Bar Gaelic at Festival in Cork
DUBLIN, July 8.—A force of soldiers, attending an Irish festival in Cork to-day, prevented speeches being made in Gaelic, whereupon speeches were made in English and songs sung in French.

AMERICAN FLYERS ARE DECORATED BY KING OF ITALY

Lieut. Alexander O. Craig of New York Outwits Austrian in Air Battle.

ITALIAN ARMY HEADQUARTERS, Sunday, July 7 (Associated Press).—The Italian commandant under whose direction the American flyers are working on the Italian front has only one fault to find with them. They never want to remain on the ground. Regardless of the weather, the fierceness of the barrage or the vigilant enemy chasers they want to be in the air after the enemy.

The exploits which brought five of the American airmen decorations cannot yet be published, but the value of their service may be judged from the fact that King Victor Emmanuel went to the section held by the Americans to personally make the presentation. But all the Americans are doing splendid work, more than justifying the confidence placed in them when their presence on the battlefield was requested by the Italian Supreme Command and they were selected by Capt. Fiorenzo La Guardia.

A few days ago Lieut. Alexander O. Craig of New York, while flying over Austrian territory, was attacked by a chaser plane. By skilfully handling his own machine after a few minutes of jockeying he put his adversary at a disadvantage and manoeuvred his own gunner into such a position that a burst of machine gun fire shot the attacker dead and sent his plane to the ground in flames. Lieut. Craig's exploit received official recognition, as an officer in an Italian observation balloon had watched the combat from beginning to end through field glasses.

While Lieut. Harry L. Holts of Hurley, Idaho, was on his way back over the Austrian lines after a deep raid into enemy territory his plane was struck by a burst of shrapnel from anti-aircraft guns. One fragment lodged in the body of Holts' machine. Another tore a hole in the right wing, while a third splintered one of the left wing spars, at the same time cutting one of the aileron control cables to such an extent that a single strand of steel wire was left.

Lieut. Holts calmly pointed out the break to the Italian mechanic accompanying him to show the imminent danger they were in. The mechanic climbed out and fought his way to the wing against a tremendous wind pressure. Then, lying flat on his face and bracing his feet against the strut, he grasped the damaged cable with one hand on each side of the break.

Stephen Binder, Brooklyn butcher-author, convicted on two counts for violation of the espionage law, was sentenced to ten years' imprisonment on each count, the two terms to run concurrently, by Judge Garvin in the United States District Court, Brooklyn, to-day. Binder showed no emotion. Binder will serve his sentence in the

machine. Another tore a hole in the right wing, while a third splintered one of the left wing spars, at the same time cutting one of the aileron control cables to such an extent that a single strand of steel wire was left.

Lieut. Holts calmly pointed out the break to the Italian mechanic accompanying him to show the imminent danger they were in. The mechanic climbed out and fought his way to the wing against a tremendous wind pressure. Then, lying flat on his face and bracing his feet against the strut, he grasped the damaged cable with one hand on each side of the break.

Stephen Binder, Brooklyn butcher-author, convicted on two counts for violation of the espionage law, was sentenced to ten years' imprisonment on each count, the two terms to run concurrently, by Judge Garvin in the United States District Court, Brooklyn, to-day. Binder showed no emotion. Binder will serve his sentence in the

machine. Another tore a hole in the right wing, while a third splintered one of the left wing spars, at the same time cutting one of the aileron control cables to such an extent that a single strand of steel wire was left.

Lieut. Holts calmly pointed out the break to the Italian mechanic accompanying him to show the imminent danger they were in. The mechanic climbed out and fought his way to the wing against a tremendous wind pressure. Then, lying flat on his face and bracing his feet against the strut, he grasped the damaged cable with one hand on each side of the break.

Stephen Binder, Brooklyn butcher-author, convicted on two counts for violation of the espionage law, was sentenced to ten years' imprisonment on each count, the two terms to run concurrently, by Judge Garvin in the United States District Court, Brooklyn, to-day. Binder showed no emotion. Binder will serve his sentence in the

machine. Another tore a hole in the right wing, while a third splintered one of the left wing spars, at the same time cutting one of the aileron control cables to such an extent that a single strand of steel wire was left.

Lieut. Holts calmly pointed out the break to the Italian mechanic accompanying him to show the imminent danger they were in. The mechanic climbed out and fought his way to the wing against a tremendous wind pressure. Then, lying flat on his face and bracing his feet against the strut, he grasped the damaged cable with one hand on each side of the break.

Stephen Binder, Brooklyn butcher-author, convicted on two counts for violation of the espionage law, was sentenced to ten years' imprisonment on each count, the two terms to run concurrently, by Judge Garvin in the United States District Court, Brooklyn, to-day. Binder showed no emotion. Binder will serve his sentence in the

machine. Another tore a hole in the right wing, while a third splintered one of the left wing spars, at the same time cutting one of the aileron control cables to such an extent that a single strand of steel wire was left.

Lieut. Holts calmly pointed out the break to the Italian mechanic accompanying him to show the imminent danger they were in. The mechanic climbed out and fought his way to the wing against a tremendous wind pressure. Then, lying flat on his face and bracing his feet against the strut, he grasped the damaged cable with one hand on each side of the break.

Stephen Binder, Brooklyn butcher-author, convicted on two counts for violation of the espionage law, was sentenced to ten years' imprisonment on each count, the two terms to run concurrently, by Judge Garvin in the United States District Court, Brooklyn, to-day. Binder showed no emotion. Binder will serve his sentence in the

machine. Another tore a hole in the right wing, while a third splintered one of the left wing spars, at the same time cutting one of the aileron control cables to such an extent that a single strand of steel wire was left.

Lieut. Holts calmly pointed out the break to the Italian mechanic accompanying him to show the imminent danger they were in. The mechanic climbed out and fought his way to the wing against a tremendous wind pressure. Then, lying flat on his face and bracing his feet against the strut, he grasped the damaged cable with one hand on each side of the break.

Stephen Binder, Brooklyn butcher-author, convicted on two counts for violation of the espionage law, was sentenced to ten years' imprisonment on each count, the two terms to run concurrently, by Judge Garvin in the United States District Court, Brooklyn, to-day. Binder showed no emotion. Binder will serve his sentence in the

machine. Another tore a hole in the right wing, while a third splintered one of the left wing spars, at the same time cutting one of the aileron control cables to such an extent that a single strand of steel wire was left.

Lieut. Holts calmly pointed out the break to the Italian mechanic accompanying him to show the imminent danger they were in. The mechanic climbed out and fought his way to the wing against a tremendous wind pressure. Then, lying flat on his face and bracing his feet against the strut, he grasped the damaged cable with one hand on each side of the break.

Stephen Binder, Brooklyn butcher-author, convicted on two counts for violation of the espionage law, was sentenced to ten years' imprisonment on each count, the two terms to run concurrently, by Judge Garvin in the United States District Court, Brooklyn, to-day. Binder showed no emotion. Binder will serve his sentence in the

machine. Another tore a hole in the right wing, while a third splintered one of the left wing spars, at the same time cutting one of the aileron control cables to such an extent that a single strand of steel wire was left.

Lieut. Holts calmly pointed out the break to the Italian mechanic accompanying him to show the imminent danger they were in. The mechanic climbed out and fought his way to the wing against a tremendous wind pressure. Then, lying flat on his face and bracing his feet against the strut, he grasped the damaged cable with one hand on each side of the break.

Stephen Binder, Brooklyn butcher-author, convicted on two counts for violation of the espionage law, was sentenced to ten years' imprisonment on each count, the two terms to run concurrently, by Judge Garvin in the United States District Court, Brooklyn, to-day. Binder showed no emotion. Binder will serve his sentence in the

machine. Another tore a hole in the right wing, while a third splintered one of the left wing spars, at the same time cutting one of the aileron control cables to such an extent that a single strand of steel wire was left.

machine. Another tore a hole in the right wing, while a third splintered one of the left wing spars, at the same time cutting one of the aileron control cables to such an extent that a single strand of steel wire was left.

Lieut. Holts calmly pointed out the break to the Italian mechanic accompanying him to show the imminent danger they were in. The mechanic climbed out and fought his way to the wing against a tremendous wind pressure. Then, lying flat on his face and bracing his feet against the strut, he grasped the damaged cable with one hand on each side of the break.

Stephen Binder, Brooklyn butcher-author, convicted on two counts for violation of the espionage law, was sentenced to ten years' imprisonment on each count, the two terms to run concurrently, by Judge Garvin in the United States District Court, Brooklyn, to-day. Binder showed no emotion. Binder will serve his sentence in the

machine. Another tore a hole in the right wing, while a third splintered one of the left wing spars, at the same time cutting one of the aileron control cables to such an extent that a single strand of steel wire was left.

Lieut. Holts calmly pointed out the break to the Italian mechanic accompanying him to show the imminent danger they were in. The mechanic climbed out and fought his way to the wing against a tremendous wind pressure. Then, lying flat on his face and bracing his feet against the strut, he grasped the damaged cable with one hand on each side of the break.

Stephen Binder, Brooklyn butcher-author, convicted on two counts for violation of the espionage law, was sentenced to ten years' imprisonment on each count, the two terms to run concurrently, by Judge Garvin in the United States District Court, Brooklyn, to-day. Binder showed no emotion. Binder will serve his sentence in the

machine. Another tore a hole in the right wing, while a third splintered one of the left wing spars, at the same time cutting one of the aileron control cables to such an extent that a single strand of steel wire was left.

Lieut. Holts calmly pointed out the break to the Italian mechanic accompanying him to show the imminent danger they were in. The mechanic climbed out and fought his way to the wing against a tremendous wind pressure. Then, lying flat on his face and bracing his feet against the strut, he grasped the damaged cable with one hand on each side of the break.

Stephen Binder, Brooklyn butcher-author, convicted on two counts for violation of the espionage law, was sentenced to ten years' imprisonment on each count, the two terms to run concurrently, by Judge Garvin in the United States District Court, Brooklyn, to-day. Binder showed no emotion. Binder will serve his sentence in the

machine. Another tore a hole in the right wing, while a third splintered one of the left wing spars, at the same time cutting one of the aileron control cables to such an extent that a single strand of steel wire was left.

Lieut. Holts calmly pointed out the break to the Italian mechanic accompanying him to show the imminent danger they were in. The mechanic climbed out and fought his way to the wing against a tremendous wind pressure. Then, lying flat on his face and bracing his feet against the strut, he grasped the damaged cable with one hand on each side of the break.

Stephen Binder, Brooklyn butcher-author, convicted on two counts for violation of the espionage law, was sentenced to ten years' imprisonment on each count, the two terms to run concurrently, by Judge Garvin in the United States District Court, Brooklyn, to-day. Binder showed no emotion. Binder will serve his sentence in the

machine. Another tore a hole in the right wing, while a third splintered one of the left wing spars, at the same time cutting one of the aileron control cables to such an extent that a single strand of steel wire was left.

Lieut. Holts calmly pointed out the break to the Italian mechanic accompanying him to show the imminent danger they were in. The mechanic climbed out and fought his way to the wing against a tremendous wind pressure. Then, lying flat on his face and bracing his feet against the strut, he grasped the damaged cable with one hand on each side of the break.

Stephen Binder, Brooklyn butcher-author, convicted on two counts for violation of the espionage law, was sentenced to ten years' imprisonment on each count, the two terms to run concurrently, by Judge Garvin in the United States District Court, Brooklyn, to-day. Binder showed no emotion. Binder will serve his sentence in the

machine. Another tore a hole in the right wing, while a third splintered one of the left wing spars, at the same time cutting one of the aileron control cables to such an extent that a single strand of steel wire was left.

Lieut. Holts calmly pointed out the break to the Italian mechanic accompanying him to show the imminent danger they were in. The mechanic climbed out and fought his way to the wing against a tremendous wind pressure. Then, lying flat on his face and bracing his feet against the strut, he grasped the damaged cable with one hand on each side of the break.

Stephen Binder, Brooklyn butcher-author, convicted on two counts for violation of the espionage law, was sentenced to ten years' imprisonment on each count, the two terms to run concurrently, by Judge Garvin in the United States District Court, Brooklyn, to-day. Binder showed no emotion. Binder will serve his sentence in the

machine. Another tore a hole in the right wing, while a third splintered one of the left wing spars, at the same time cutting one of the aileron control cables to such an extent that a single strand of steel wire was left.

Lieut. Holts calmly pointed out the break to the Italian mechanic accompanying him to show the imminent danger they were in. The mechanic climbed out and fought his way to the wing against a tremendous wind pressure. Then, lying flat on his face and bracing his feet against the strut, he grasped the damaged cable with one hand on each side of the break.

Stephen Binder, Brooklyn butcher-author, convicted on two counts for violation of the espionage law, was sentenced to ten years' imprisonment on each count, the two terms to run concurrently, by Judge Garvin in the United States District Court, Brooklyn, to-day. Binder showed no emotion. Binder will serve his sentence in the

machine. Another tore a hole in the right wing, while a third splintered one of the left wing spars, at the same time cutting one of the aileron control cables to such an extent that a single strand of steel wire was left.

Federal Penitentiary at Atlanta, Ga. He is the author of the book "Light and Truth."

Ehrlich Glasses
Are Guaranteed
Yet Cost No More than ordinary glasses. You also get the service of our registered specialists for the examination of your eyes.
Correctly Fitted Glass from $2.50

Ehrlich & Sons
Established 56 Years
New York: 184 B'way, at John St.
333 Sixth Ave., 15th St.
350 Sixth Ave., 23d St.
241 Nassau, at Ann St.
17 West 42d Street
Brooklyn: 498 Fulton St., cor. Bond St.

BELL-AN'S
Absolutely Removes Indigestion, Druggists
refund money if it fails, 25c

During July and August the Store will be closed all day on Saturdays

B. Altman & Co.

MADISON AVENUE-FIFTH AVENUE, NEW YORK

Thirty-fourth Street

Thirty-fifth Street

MONEY-SAVING OPPORTUNITIES FOR TUESDAY

Another Sale of Lingerie Ribbons

will be an event of special feminine interest on the First Floor.

This Sale offers a new purchase of satin ribbons, in white, blue and pink (designed for lingerie use, and especially woven in a dainty Jacquard design for B. Altman & Co.) at the following low prices:

No. 1 1 1/2 2 2 5 7 9
38c., 45c., 60c., 75c., $1.10, 1.28, 1.75

per piece of ten yards

Rain-or-Shine Silk Parasols of superior-quality rainproof silk taffeta, in green, purple, blue, beaver, red and solid black, with smart novelty handles in most desirable mountings (including bakelite, silver and leather) will be offered at the extraordinarily low price of $3.50 each

Many of the parasols in this sale have been priced heretofore at a very much higher figure.

Special Values

will be obtainable, beginning to-morrow, in

Boys' Washable Suits

(sizes 2 1/2 to 8 years) which have been taken from stock and reduced, for immediate clearance, to the uniform and extremely low price of

$1.55 per suit

BOYS' SUMMER HATS

which have also been subjected to severe price revisions, include

Straw Hats, in several styles, 90c. & $1.45

Washable Hats . . . 50c. & 90c.

(Department on the Sixth Floor)

Select-quality Handkerchiefs

specially priced

MEN'S LINEN HANDKERCHIEFS

Initialed, per dozen . . . $3.50

With hand-embroidered initial, per doz. 6.50

Plain, hemstitched,

per dozen . . . $2.75, 4.50, 6.00 & 9.00

With tape border, per dozen . . . 5.50

With colored border, per dozen . . . 6.00

Also Men's Khaki-color Cotton Handkerchiefs, initialed; per half dozen, in box . . . $1.10

WOMEN'S SHEER LINEN HANDKERCHIEFS
Initialed . . . per dozen $2.10

Plain, hemstitched,

per dozen . . . $1.80, 2.35 & 2.85

With tape border . . . per dozen 2.25

Hemstitched, with embroidered corner,

each . . . 19c.

With hand-embroidered scalloped edge,

each . . . 38c.

Also Women's Shamrock Lawn Handkerchiefs, with colored initial, per half-dozen, in box . . . 68c.

Seasonable Bed Furnishings

at economy prices

will constitute a special Tuesday and Wednesday
Sale on the Fourth Floor.

White Blankets

per pair . . . $6.50, 8.00 & 10.00

Satin-finished Bedspreads

(with scalloped edges)

Size 2 x 2 1/4 yards . . . each $3.50

Size 2 1/2 x 2 1/4 yards . . . each 4.25

Comfortables

covered with plain-colored striped mull;
with lambs'-wool filling . . . each $9.50

also

Muslin Sheets and Pillow Cases

DOWN TOWN STORE CONSOLIDATED UPTOWN STORE
S. BAUMANN & BRO J. BAUMANN & BRO
N.W. COR. 6TH AVE. & 15TH ST. ESTABLISHED 1854 AT 84TH ST. & 3RD AVE.

Porcelain Lift Cover
Refrigerator $12.98

The Same, Low Price—Cash or Credit
"We Make Terms to Fit"

At Our 6th Ave. Store Open Saturdays Until 1 P.M.
At Our 3d Ave. Store Open Saturdays Until 10 P.M.

Our Annual Inventory Sale

Quality Merchandise—Newest Styles
25% to 50% Reductions in All Departments
This is the TIME and the PLACE to anticipate your FALL FURNITURE needs before the rush of next month begins, taking advantage of our LIBERAL CONVENIENT CREDIT PLAN to solve the question of PAYMENT with practically NO CASH OUTLAY.

Toilet Table
in mahogany with triple mirror as illustrated $15.98

Motor Truck Deliveries

Queen Anne Period Dining Room Suite in American Walnut
4 Pieces, consisting of Buffet, Dining Table, 48 in., 6 ft. extension; 60 inches as illustrated.

3-Piece Library or Living Room Suite
Massive frames, mahogany finish, highly polished, upholstered seats, back and arms, in genuine brown Spanish leather; indestructible springs in seats; like cut, at 4 Pieces at $175

wide; China Closet, Serving Table, Dining Table, etc.

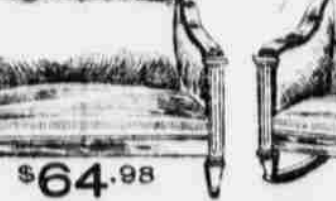

Motor Truck Deliveries

S. BAUMANN & BRO
N.W. COR. 6TH AVE. & 15TH ST.

Let us show you how you can furnish a Living, Dining and Bedroom 3 ROOMS FOR $225 With High-Grade Period Furniture

J. BAUMANN & BRO
AT 84TH ST. & 3RD AVE.

J. BAUMANN & BRO
AT 84TH ST. & 3RD AVE.

Sunday World Wants Work Monday Morning Wonders

Cuticura Soap
IS IDEAL
For the Hands
Prevents the formation of warts, corns, blisters, etc. It is a skin preservative and a hair restorer. It is not a dye. Cuticura is sold in all drug stores, ready to use. Price 10c. per box, 25c. per box.

INVALIDS' CHAIRS
WE MAKE OVER 70 STYLES
SARGENT CO.,
122 N. 2nd St.,
Baltimore, Md.
Sole agents: Cor. 23d St. & Lexington Ave.